IT Policies
Ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in schools	The school has policies in place which make reference to the "Prevent" duty.	Our Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy makes direct reference to the Prevent Duty. In addition to this, we plan to embed this further through the following policies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> E safety policy Acceptable use policy Anti-bullying policy 	Prevent Lead	To be added to additional policies as necessary
	Children are taught about on-line safety with specific reference to the risk of radicalisation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The curriculum covers a variety of aspects of online safety on an age appropriate basis, throughout each term. 		Curriculum references clarified

Building children’s resilience to radicalisation
Ensure that pupils have a “safe environment” in which to discuss “controversial issues”.	Pupils develop “the knowledge, skills and understanding to prepare them to play a full and active part in society”.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through PSHCE, and other curriculum activities, pupils are able to explore political, religious and social issues. • Pupils are taught about the diverse national, regional and ethnic identities in the UK and the need for mutual respect.
